April 2009

Homeowners invited to enter FREE £500 Prize Draw on FENSA stand at Grand Designs Live

FENSA, the Government authorised, Competent Persons Scheme for replacement window and doors installers, will be at Grand Designs Live in London on 25th April - 4th May 2009. Homeowners are invited to meet FENSA and to enter a free £500 prize draw towards their next replacement window and door installation.

With spring on the near horizon, the downturn in the economy and banks being more stringent with offering mortgages, some experts believe that homeowners are more likely to undertake home improvement projects. Grand Designs Live London is considered the biggest consumer show in the UK aimed at anyone who has an interest in home improvements. The ten-day show consists of five areas under one roof: Grand Build, Grand Interiors, Grand Bathrooms, Grand Kitchens and Grand Gardens. Last year, the same event attracted over 100,000 visitors and over 500 exhibitors across nine days.

Homeowners are invited to meet FENSA at Grand Designs Live on stand B480 (Grand Build Hall), where they will have the opportunity to:

- Enter a FREE prize draw to win £500 towards a new replacement window or door installation (sponsored by Southern Aluminium & UPVC Window Co. (London) Ltd)
- Order duplicate FENSA certificates for FREE
- Speak with FENSA staff
- Find out about the benefits of using a FENSA installer
- See samples of installations registered with FENSA that are subsequently sent to Local Authorities on installers' behalf

Graham Hinett
CEO, FENSA

Graham Hinett, CEO, FENSA commented 'Through our continual efforts aimed at communicating with registered businesses to meet and identify their needs, installers tell us that they would like to see government and industry take a more proactive role in communicating to consumers the importance of using a FENSA registered installer. Grand Designs Live London provides FENSA with an ideal opportunity to speak directly to our registered businesses' customers.'

FENSA is sharing the B480 stand with the GGF and the BFRC in the Grand Build Hall at Grand Designs Live.
